IT TAKES KNOWLEDGE TO TREAT THE SICK

Despite great advances in medical knowledge, there are still some people who depend on old fashioned self-treatments. Some let persons with no drug or medical training advise them what medicines to take.

When door-to-door peddlers or mailorder opportunists presume to tell you what to take when you are sick—be wise. In order to treat sickness a diagnosis of the cause is needed. No one but a physician has this knowledge.

TWO WAYS OF LIFE...

The way America and Russia each put a man into space in itself is a graphic illustration of the basic difference between the free way of life and the totalitarian way of life.

The general public in Russia was unaware of a planned space flight until it was suddenly announced over radio and TV that a man was in orbit. The Russian government would make no announcement until success was assured.

The American public, on the other hand, could watch attempted launching after launching of missiles, and their failures, and feel perfect satisfaction when a successful launching was made. The American public could watch on TV the first man to be shot into space as he was put into the capsule. If he had failed there would have been no secret of it. And every known measure was taken to save his life in event of failure.

But in Russia, there is no way of knowing how many failures preceded the flight of Gagarin. There is no way of knowing how many men lost their lives in experiments which led to success.

The entire history of mankind has been a record of struggles between men dedicated to the free way of life as opposed to totalitarian systems. And every time there has been a showdown between the two, the free men have won.

The handful of Greeks who fought off the Persian hordes at Marathon, the handful of Greek ships who withstood the mighty Persian fleet at Salamis, the handful of English ships under Admiral Drake who destroyed the "Invincible" Spanish Armada, wrote a record of what free men can do when pitted against men with totalitarian thought.

A large part of the American population can remember Hitler and Mussolini seemed to exert a magic spell upon everything they touched. Everything they did seemed to succeed beyond anyone's wildest expectations, while the democracies of England and America seemed to be shoved around.

But at the showdown, the island fortress of England stood as unshakable when it faced the "Invincible" Spanish Armada until the American democracy swung in to action, and with their allies, left a shambles of Nazism and Fascism.

21 YEARS AGO—

FROM OUR EARLY FILES...

The Elba High School baseball team won its sixth and seventh games without defeat, beating New Brockton, 15 to 2, and Brantley, 8 to 4.

Announcement was made that Hon. Marion Rushton, Democratic National Committeeman from Alabama, would address the Democrats of Coffee County at the Elba Armory, sponsored by the Coffee County League of Young Democrats.

Mrs. C. E. O'Neal, Mrs. Milton O'Neal and little son, Milton Jr., and Mrs. Henry Lee Mullins visited in the home of Mrs. Betty Rowe in Elba.

Members of the Mt. Zion Vocational Home Economics Club presented the program at the regular meeting of the Elba PTA in the high school auditorium. Mrs. T. D. Kendrick, vice president, called the meeting to order and conducted the business session. After the meeting, refreshments were served to all present by Mrs. F. H. Murphree, Miss Jean Richardson, and Mrs. F. F. Clark.

Comer Devane, who was injured in an automobile accident on the Blue Hill near Elba and taken to a Troy hospital for treatment, returned to his home in Brantley for convalescence. Mr. Devane was injured when the car which he was driving collided with the car of Chalmers Biehn of Elba.

The Beta Club of Elba high school with Miss Jean Richardson as sponsor, entertained at a lovely banquet at the Brunson Hotel.

Miss Jean Brunson presided and directed the program of entertainment. Miss Marjorie Brunson gave a toast to the new members and Miss Julie Bradley responded. Present on this delightful occasion were: Misses Jean Richardson, Marjorie Brunson, Dorothy Murphy, Maggie Dean Clark, Betty Braswell, Betty Jean Bullard, Olive Ray Kendrick, Ida Isabel Whitman, Edith Harris, Jeanne Brunson, Reida Taylor, Mary Will Kendrick, Mary Gwendolyn Boutwell, Martha Frances Dowling, Julie Bradley, Olene Taylor, Martha Ham, Marguerite Edmondson, Nell English, and Carlos Swain, James Martin, and Willard Martin.

Miss Catherine Brunson of Elba was one of 93 students and one of 24 freshmen listed on the honor roll for the third quarter at Judson College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brunson of Elba.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS
BY T. C. SELF

Terrace lines were run on the Fred Hataway and J. L. Matthews farms recently. The jobs were scheduled to have been completed earlier in the year but due to extended heavy rains these jobs were delayed. Old terrace lines were smoothed with bulldozers on both farms before new lines were run. Much of the topsoil accumulates in the old terrace banks after many years of breaking toward the terraces. Getting this soil back over the field is well worth the cost.

The rains seem to have been heavier and more frequent this year over normal years. Terrace lines should not have obstruction that have been poorly maintained were severely damaged in some instances. Terraces should be plowed up after harvest to provide adequate water carrying capacity; terrace outlets should not have obstruction to water passage. Frequently waterways are plowed up and become too narrow cutting the breaking and cultivation of crops. Water concentrated into small areas cause velocities severe enough to fill and gully the disposal area.

Water should be kept as shallow as possible. Water weighs 62 pounds per cubic foot, therefore a 2 or 3 inch rain produces many tons of water that must get off a field one way or another. Water that leaves a field slowly does not produce much damage.

Mayor of Brantley Leads Way to More And Superior Hogs

Brantley Mayor, W. D. Bailey believes there is a future in commercial hog production and to prove it he's invested $20,000 in a unique program that could be a shot in the arm to the predominantly agricultural economy of this area.

Bailey is raising purebred Duroc, Landrace, Yorkshire, Berkshire and Hampshire gilts to be loaned as breeding stock to farmers in Crenshaw and surrounding counties. The farmer can take as many gilts as he desires, sell the pigs without any reservations and when old age slows production swap the sows for new gilts.

In return, Bailey, as operator of a feed mill, hopes to sell the hog farmer concentrate for the same price. However, as a public official, Bailey has a strong desire to see a better, stronger economy in the area. "Our main purpose in the hog business is trying to keep people on the farm and give them an income other than row crops," he said.

Breeding Stock The futuristic minded Bailey also will gain returns on his substantial investment by feeding out the male pigs and sub-standard gilts for marketing. He also will have some breeding stock for sale to other pig breeders interested in establishing a good strain.

The ideal of lending gilts to increase and develop a better swine herd in an area is relatively new in the southeast. It was introduced three years ago in a neighboring state. Bailey visited a similar operation at Climax, Ga. last year and returned to Brantley convinced that gilt lending would work in Crenshaw county.

Turning to his former co-vagator at Brantley High School, M. L. Carroll, for advice and aid, Bailey wasted little time putting his idea to work. He purchased 22 and a half acres of scrub forest land south of Brantley, cleared it, planted pasture, drilled 400 feet of water and constructed a 24-by-24 farrowing house and 600-head pig parlor. By the time Bailey purchased his purebred breeding stock he had an investment of more than $20,000. When the unit is at peak production, sometime around the first of the year, Bailey will have an additional $10,000 invested.

Plans are to build the herd up to about 150 brood sows out.

of the stock in the yard now. He has 65 head of sows at present.

Following the advice of Carroll, Bailey kept his plant compact and simple. The best planning and automation has kept the operation a two-man job. Each sow has a private house and land for grazing. Bred sows have a 10-acre pasture of bahia grass to roam. In addition two other 7 and 10-acre pastures are planted for grazing.

Summer Cooling The farrowing house has fans for summer cooling. A septic tank back of the house will dispose of the refuse as the slightly inclined floor is cleaned with water hoses.

Automatic feeders and waterers help make the work at the pig parlor a one-man job. Fog sprays have been installed to help the animals beat the summer heat problem. A laagoon, off to a side, will dispose of waste from the parlor.

Mobile Pauses To Observe History

MOBILE — This busy city of giant mills and big ships, without ever breaking its stride toward greater expansion, is taking time out in 1961 to look back over its two and a half centuries of history.

Already under way, commemoration of Mobile's founding by a young Frenchman named Bienville 250 years ago is rathering steam toward a climax in mid-June with a pageant at Ladd Memorial Football Stadium to run six nights, and the selection of a "Maid of Mobile."

Most men by now have pointed the ranks of the "Mobile Cavaliers," simply by not shaving and the dattair side have become "Jubilee Belles" by joining groups of women who wear costumes one day a week appropriate of one of the five periods of Mobile's history.

Congratulations Graduates!

One third of all boys and girls of college age are going to college. Many of their parents earn less than $100.00 a week.

THE ADVANTAGES:

The average college graduate earns $268,000 in a lifetime, according to the Bureau of Labor Standards. It compares with $155,000 for the average high school graduate. Can you NOT afford to send your child to college?

GRADUATES:

The grass is sometimes greener on the other side of the fence but just as often there are acres of diamonds to be found in your own front yard. Particularly if you are primarily interested in service to others, Elba and the South needs you!

State Government Costs Over Million Dollars Each Day

Running the state government takes more than $1 million a day.

During the next fiscal year, the state expects to spend a total of approximately $800 million. Of this total, some $300 million comes from taxes, most of which are earmarked for special purposes, and the remaining $500,000 from federal grants, retirement system contributions and other non-tax revenue.

Gov. Patterson, in addressing the State Legislature, threatened to veto any tax measure passing the Legislature.

The governor reported the general fund, which pays for the majority of state programs, and services, should contain an unexpected surplus of $2.2 million at the end of this fiscal year. He attributed this increase to "sound economy policies."

The governor's budget recommendations call for the appropriation of more than $11.3 million from the general fund. Incoming revenue plus the surplus is anticipated to be $42.8 million, leaving a "cushion" of $1.5 million.

More For Pensions The proposed budget allocates $1.1 million more to the Department of Pensions and Security, upping the department's appropriation to $8.9 million from the general fund. The department also draws earmarked funds, including proceeds from one-half of the liquor tax imposed two years ago. Education relies on monies from the Special Educational Trust Fund, composed mainly of sales and property taxes. Increased Appropriations Gov. Patterson, in his budget message, called for increased appropriations from the general fund to boost Alabama's tourist promotion program and to build additional National Guard armories over the state. He also asked for:

Appropriations to buy land for a state park at the site of old Fort Toulouse in Elmore County, $25,000; new Police Academy at Montgomery to train city, county and state law enforcement officers, $250,000; machine card filing system for state driver's license bureau, $150,000.

Appropriation to assist University of Auburn in starting program to study new, modern methods for the cultivation of cotton, $100,000; air conditioning of State Archives and History Building, $100,000; and promotion of proposed Tombigbee - Tennessee River canal, $100,000.

Duke said he had submitted his resignation as chairman about a month ago, but the executive committee did not name his successor, Mrs. Ina Meri Moore, Winfield, until a meeting of April 29.

Duke has been outspoken during the past year with regard to the practice of signing contracts which do not guarantee full payment of teachers' salaries.

He also has been critical of what he calls timidity demonstrated by the "rank and file" of the teachers in failing to assert themselves on matters of a professional nature.

Duke has contended in numerous speaking appearances that the teaching profession has acted in a "spiteful" manner respecting their own welfare and challenged teachers to realize that they "occupy the most strategic position of any vocational group with respect to salaries and other benefits."

Miss Bryan Is Honor Guest At Party For Seniors

Eight of Elba High's graduates breakfasted at a local restaurant Saturday, last week, when Mrs. Shirley Carpenter and Mrs. James Bessell entertained in honor of Yvonne Bryan.

The hostesses met each guest at the door taking pulse and temperature using a pepper-mint stick as a thermometer. The table cover was white and adorned with pink roses and pink ribbons, their class colors.

A doll belonging to Yvonne, dressed in white cap and gown stood at one end giving the validity. And at each place there was a diploma, rolled scroll washion, and a tiny doll wearing a cap and gown, for a souvenir.

A six-branched candlestick burning pink candles graced the opposite end of the table.

Those present for this event were the honoree, Yvonne Bryan, her mother, Mrs. Wayland Bryan, Ella A. Allen, Henriette Dorsey, Jack Warr, Bobby Inman, Patsy May, John Smith and Ellen Smith.

Supt. Casey And Mrs. Will Kendrick Praised By Speaker

Tribute was paid to retiring School Superintendent S. J. Casey and to Mrs. J. W. Kendrick, Senior class sponsor, at commencement exercises for education, as chairman of the Alabama Beta Council, he said the 1961 class of Elba High Friday last week by Dr. Frank Newell, superintendent of Calhoun county schools.

Dr. Newell termed them friends of his and of public education. He praised their membership on the council "added dignity and efficiency."

Dr. Newell said Superintendent Casey is "known and appreciated throughout the state for his valuable contribution to education and is recognized as a superior school administrator."

Dr. Newell said that Casey, according to William Martin, chairman of the City Recreation Board, "has been a steady force in the school system for many years."

Graduates who had maintained an average through four years of high school were announced as follows: Wayne Taylor, Henriette Dorsey, Ella Daniels, Charlotte Meek, Janet Warr, Bobby Inman, Patsy May, John Smith and Ellen Smith.

Those who maintained a high B average four years were announced as: James Brooks, Roger Winston, Jr., Jimmie Harrison, Cleo Roberts, Gayle F. White, Cecelia Burkett, Margaret Hudson and Larry Wise.

Elba High has long followed a policy of not selecting a valedictorian or salutatorian but announcing honor graduates.

The DAR Good Citizenship award was made to Henriette Dorsey, a certificate of perfect attendance through 12 years of Grammar and High School was awarded to Billy Moore.

Sixty-one students graduated. Ceremonies included invocation by Dr. E. M. Warr of Elba, address of welcome by Mary John Smith, class president, followed by introduction of Dr. Newell by School Principal Elmer Taylor. Mr. Taylor presented the diplomas. Music for the procession and recessional was by Mrs. Roy King.
